Default Order Revoking
Resident Insurance Producer's
Licensing Privileges

This matter comes before me pursuant to a Letter of Allegation and Notice of Opportunity for Public Hearing served, as required within S.C. Code Ann. § 38-3-170 (2004), by the State of South Carolina Department of Insurance upon Lisa Gaskins by both certified mail, return receipt requested, and by regular mail on January 6, 2005.

By that letter, Lisa Gaskins was informed of her right to request a public hearing upon the allegations of impropriety contained within the letter against her. Further, she was warned that her failure to make a timely, written request would result in my summary revocation of her license to do business as a resident insurance agent within the State of South Carolina. Despite that warning, Ms. Gaskins has failed to respond to the Department's letter. On March 1, 2005, therefore, counsel for the Department filed an Affidavit of Default, and the entire matter was submitted directly to me for my summary decision based solely on the record.

The letter alleged, and I now find as fact, that while licensed to do business as a resident insurance agent within the State of South Carolina, Lisa Gaskins was convicted by the South Carolina Circuit Court of General Sessions, Richland County, of "FTC/ Financial Identity Fraud", in The State v. Lisa Gaskins, Criminal Docket Number: 2002GS4000849.

S.C. Code Ann. § 38-43-130 (2004) provides: "The director or his designee may revoke or suspend an agent's license after ten day's notice...when it appears that an agent has been convicted of a crime of moral involving moral turpitude...." The crime of "FTC/ Financial Identity Fraud" involves moral turpitude.

In accordance with my findings of fact, and considering Ms. Gaskins' failure to avail herself of her opportunity to be heard, I now conclude, as a matter of law, that Lisa Gaskins was convicted of a crime of moral turpitude, and that all of her licensing privileges should be revoked.

This administrative disciplinary order is a public record subject to the disclosure requirements of the State of South Carolina's Freedom of Information Act, S.C. Code Ann. §§ 30-40-10, et seq. (1991 and 2004). Nothing contained within this administrative disciplinary order should be construed to limit or to deprive any person of any private right of action under the law. Nothing contained within this administrative disciplinary order should be construed to limit, in any manner, the criminal jurisdiction of any law enforcement or judicial officer. Nothing contained within this administrative disciplinary order should be construed to limit the statutory duty, pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 38-3-110 (4) (2004), of the Director of Insurance, exercised either directly or through the Department of Insurance, to "report to the Attorney General or other appropriate law enforcement officials criminal violations of the law relative to the business of insurance or the provisions of this title which he considers necessary to report."

It is therefore ordered that Lisa Gaskins' license to transact business as a resident insurance agent within the State of South Carolina be, and is hereby, revoked, and that no license, issued through the State of South Carolina Department of Insurance is to be issued to her.

It is further ordered that a copy of this order be transmitted to the National Association of Insurance Commissioners for distribution to its current member states and to each insurer for which Lisa Gaskins is currently licensed, through the State of South Carolina Department of Insurance, as a resident insurance agent within the State of South Carolina.

This order takes effect upon the date of my signature below.

Affidavit of Default

Personally appeared before me John B. O'Neal, III, who, being duly sworn, stated that at all times relevant to this Affidavit of Default he was an attorney representing the State of South Carolina Department of Insurance in this administrative action. He further stated the following:

The Department served notice on Lisa Gaskins at the address detailed above, by a Letter of Allegation and Notice of Opportunity for a Public Hearing that the Department would request the Director of Insurance to summarily revoke her license to act as a resident insurance producer within the State of South Carolina in thirty days. The Department served the Notice, pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 38-3-170 (Supp. 2004), by "depositing it in the United States mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the last known address of the person and registered with the return receipt requested." That Notice further informed Lisa Gaskins of her opportunity, within thirty days, to request in writing a public hearing.

The United States Postal Service effected service of the Notice by certified mail, return receipt requested, and by regular mail, on or about January 6, 2005. Lisa Gaskins has made no request for a public hearing or any other response to the Notice. The time in which to do so has expired. She is now in default.
